

Scott Erickson is a touring painter, performance artist, and creative priest who mixes autobiography, biblical narrative, and aesthetics to create art that speaks to our deepest experiences. He is currently touring his one man performance piece "We are Not Troubled Guests", and is the coauthor of "Prayer, Forty Days of Practice." Scott is most loved by his Wife Holly and their three children in Portland, Oregon.